

Genealogy 101

Want help finding YOUR ancestors?

What: Series of classes teaches how to begin your genealogy research or get tips and skills to boost what you are already doing.

When: April 22nd & 29th, May 13th & 20th: 10:00 am – 3:30 pm

Who: Experienced researchers will share their knowledge and be available to give you some one-on-one time after each class.

Where: Meeting Room, Foxdale Village, State College, PA.

(May 20 at Centre County Library & Historical Museum, Bellefonte.)

Check website: CentreCountyGenealogy.org or email for details –

Pre-registration required.

Classes limited to first 10 who register, so contact us soon, please.

Cost: $30 donation covers handouts for all sessions including a beginner book and a CD database for organizing your research, and a discounted one-year membership in CCGS.

Sponsored by: Centre County Genealogical Society with support of Centre County Library and Historical Museum and State College Family History Center.

Contact: education@centrecountygenealogy.org

Begin with yourself! Who do you think you are?

Extend your search to the web and other resources.

Learn to use a database to organize it all !

Explore county resources and Centre County Library & Historical Museum.